Lexis Conferences is pleased to welcome everyone to attend our forthcoming Nanotech Forum 2020 which is going to be held during March 27-28, 2020 in Madrid, Spain. The meet will focus on the theme “Nanotechnology – The key to Future”

Nanotech Forum 2020 aims to provide a platform where the key strategic objective of this meeting is to nanotechnology and Material researchers, scientists, industrialists, policy makers, and academicians. Through inspiring sessions and whims of networking, you will learn to be even more audacious and bold than you are now and free to grow your mind, grow your business, and grow your bottom line. We can relieve you of the time and resource-draining elements of the events that you plan to hold. Poster and oral presentations, and thesis presentations will be included in the Conference Program.

The conference was focused on material and Nanotechnology studies with the theme “Nanotechnology – The key to Future”. The meeting engrossed a vicinity of comprehensive discussions on novel subjects like Materials, Nanotechnology, Nanomaterials, Nanoparticles and Nano structures, Material Processing, Power and Energy, Nanofabrication, nano medicine, Nanoengineering.

We can relieve you of the time and resource-draining elements of the events that you plan to hold. This conference is intended to deliver a miscellaneous and current education that will keep medical professionals up to date with the latest methodologies, strategies and the present update in the field of Nanotechnology.

The goal of organizing the Nanotech Forum 2020 is to provide exposure to technologies and to deliver information about research work proceeding on Material Science.

About Venue

Madrid is the capital of Spain, and is home to the Spanish Royal family as well as the Spanish Government. It is a modern metropolitan city and an economical and industrial center of Spain, and, with its population of nearly 3,5 million people, is also the biggest city in Spain.

Madrid has a lot of interesting attractions that offer both culture and amusement.

The city is full of great monuments, like the royal palace, the Plaza Mayor or the many statuettes, and for people interested in art, the museums Del Prado, Reina Sofia or Thyssen have some of the most fantaaastic collections of famous Spanish painters like Velazquez, Goya, Picasso or Miro.

If you like to be entertained, Madrid has two big amusements parks (including the new Warner Bros park) and there are regular international concerts, big flea markets, parades and other activities going on.

To sport enthusiasts Madrid can offer everything from skiing (only 1 hour away by bus) during the winter, to golf all year round, as well as international sporting events and the possibility to practice nearly any sport at the University facilities.

If you like going out at night, Madrid has a very interesting nightlife throughout the whole week and which is available all year round. You can either go out for a tapa (Spanish snack), eat at a very nice restaurant, go to the cinema or one of the many theatres, or find nearly any type of bar or disco.
