
Editorial Note for Organic Chemistry: An Indian Journal

Olivia Bratt

Editorial Assistant, Organic Chemistry: An Indian Journal

I am pleased to mention that during the year 2019, all issues of volume 14 were published online well within the time and the print issues were also brought out and dispatched within 30 days of publishing the issue online.

Organic Chemistry: An Indian Journal during this year also brought out 4th Global Meeting on Plastic, Aesthetic and Reconstructive Surgery, which consisted of ~11 abstracts.

The JCR Impact factor of TSOC for the year 2018 was 1.91, while the current SJR index dropped to 0.256. The H-index of the journal, however, increased to 50 and TSOC ranked first among all journals in the field of organic chemistry published in India, 2nd in Asia and 48th in the world.

During the calendar year 2019, TSOC received a total of 62 papers, out of which 36 articles (58%) were rejected in the preliminary screening due to plagiarism or being out of the format and peer review process. During 2019 around 14 articles were subjected for publication after they are accepted in the peer review process. In the 2 issues of Volume 14 published during the year 2019, a total of 14 articles were published (at an average of 8 articles per issue) of which, articles were published from authors all around the world. A total of 110 research scientists from all over the world reviewed the 14 articles published in volume 15. Average publication lag time of an article was further reduced to 2-3 weeks.

During the calendar year 2019, a total of 32 Editors, 15 Reviewers joined the board of TSOC and contributed their invaluable services towards contribution as well as publication of articles.

I take this opportunity to acknowledge the contribution of Irina Smoliakova during the final editing of articles published and the support rendered by the editorial assistant, Olivia Bratt in bringing out issues of TSOC in time. I would also like to express my gratitude to all the authors, reviewers, the publisher, the advisory and the editorial board of TSOC, the office bearers for their support in bringing out yet another volume of TSOC and look forward to their unrelenting support to bring out the Volume 15 of TSOC in scheduled time.
